PRESS RELEASE — FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2010 Loveland Chamber Board of Director Leadership Team Unveiled

Lead by Marilyn Schock, new board leadership brings more than 50 years of Loveland Chamber/18 years of Chamber board experience

LOVELAND, Colo. — Dec. 17, 2009 — The Loveland Chamber of Commerce, the driving force of business for Loveland, today announced its 2010 Board of Directors officers. Marilyn Schock serves as the 2010 Board of Directors chair and will be supported by Christine Kapperman as chair elect, Mark Weaver as chair emeritus, Dave Clark as treasurer and Miki Roth as secretary.

“The 2010 Board of Director officers bring an abundance of combined leadership, board and Loveland Chamber experience to the table, ensuring that the Chamber is in good hands as we evolve and grow to bring new opportunities, better capabilities and maximum exposure for our investors,” said Brian Willms, president/CEO of the Loveland Chamber of Commerce.

2010 Board Officers Summary

- Marilyn Schock, chair: on Dec. 7, 2009, Shock was named the chief executive officer (CEO) of McKee Medical Center in Loveland. Schock brings a wealth of leadership experience to Loveland and Northern Colorado and has served on the Loveland Chamber of Commerce board for four years. McKee Medical Center is a long-time Loveland Chamber investor.
- Christine Kapperman, chair elect: Kapperman brings six years of Loveland Chamber board experience along with more than 15 years of experience in various roles at the Loveland Reporter-Herald, a longtime Loveland Chamber investor. In addition to her board involvement, Kapperman is a graduate of the Leadership Loveland program as a member of the 2001 graduating class.
- Mark Weaver, chair emeritus: Following a successful year leading the Loveland Chamber Board of Directors, Weaver is credited with his involvement and leadership in several areas. Weaver is currently chair of the NCLA Board of Directors, has served on the Loveland Chamber Board of Directors since 2005 and previously served seven years on the board of the Front Range Employer’s Dependent Care Association (FREDCA). Weaver has been an active Loveland Chamber investor with various companies since 2002.
