

City of Loveland, Colorado MEDIA RELEASE

Contact: Jenni Dobson
Department: Cultural Services
Release Date: March 1, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Youth Advisory Commission to Hold Open House for Interested Applicants

LOVELAND, CO- The City of Loveland Youth Advisory Commission will hold an Open House for interested applicants at its April 7th meeting. The Open House and regular meeting will be held at the Loveland Museum/Gallery from 5:00 pm – 6:30 pm on April 7. Snacks will be served and application forms will be available at the meeting.

The Loveland Youth Advisory Commission is seeking new members to serve as commissioners and alternates for the 2010-2011 school year. Current alternates have the first opportunity to move into open positions, but there will be several openings for new commissioners and alternates. Students in Thompson School District Middle Schools and High Schools are invited to attend the Open House.

The Loveland Youth Advisory Commission is an official board created to advise City Council on issues concerning youth and young adults in the Loveland community. As representatives of their peers, YAC commissioners strive to improve the community for young people and serve as their connection to city government.

For more information on the Youth Advisory Commission, please contact Jenni Dobson at 970-962-2562. For an application, please contact Jenni; or you can contact Rochelle Fernley in the City Manager's Office at 970-962-2303. Applications are available at both the Loveland Museum and City Manager's Office; as well as online at www.cityofloveland.org.

###